Location

The cottages are conveniently located just a short walk from the city centre's restaurant district to the north of Market Square and less than five minutes on foot from the nearest University Colleges. Nestled in quiet backstreets with other period cottages and secluded gardens they are tranquil resting places for any short stay in Cambridge.

The Cottages

Refurbished to retain their late 19th century Victorian character yet with more than a dash of modernity, the cottages offer an elegant, homely atmosphere. Both are arranged over two floors, and with smart decoration and high quality furnishings they offer you the space to relax and enjoy your sojourn to Cambridge.

Rates

Bermuda Cottage: Sleeps 4 + cot, from £100 per night
 Canterbury Cottage: Sleeps 4 (+2) + cot, from £120 per night
 Both cottages: Sleep 8 (+2) + 2 cots, from £220 per night

Facilities

Each cottage is furnished with everything you will need for a short stay in Cambridge. The beds are supplied with clean linen each week and towels are provided. A midstay cleaning service is also available on request. For the full list of facilities please visit our website.

Our Guests...

We cater for all kinds of visitors from all over the world; whether planning a short stay to attend a graduation or conference, or, perhaps, a longer stopover on holiday, visiting family or relocating to Cambridge.

...and what they say

"Thanks for the great stay in Cambridge. The accommodation really was first rate, no complaints whatsoever. Why does anybody stay in hotels when you can stay in a place such as this?" [Keith, UK]
